Many From Out Of Town Attend With Company Officials

Thirty-seven pensioners, wives and widows of pensioners in this district of the Illinois Central railroad were guests of honor at the annual banquet last night at the Hotel Kankakee of the Illinois Central Service club.

There was a total attendance of 250 at the dinner, which was followed by short speech-making, an entertainment program and dancing. Fay B. Jenkins, 519 South Lincoln avenue, president of the club who served as master-of-ceremonies, said it was "a meeting of the Illinois Central family."

The event was described by H. C. Marmaduke of Chicago, manager of the employees' suggestion system of the railway, as "a fine example of Illinois Central people meeting together on an equal basis."

The guests of honor were: T. J. Tyrrell, Mrs. James McClarey, Mr. and Mrs. George Schlens, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wulff, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wulff, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Manigault, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. There was a Lola Belle stunt and tap dancing by Miss Ramona Williams, daughter of Elmer Williams, I. C. employee, and piano music by Elwyn H. Erickson.

Speaking on "The Romance of American Railroads," Mr. Marmaduke related a number of anecdotes that have accompanied the growth of the railway system.

Kankakee State Hospital Has Well-Patronized Library

By ELEANOR PAPINEAU

St. Joseph High School Reporter

The 3,000 volumes in the library of Kankakee state hospital are probably the most intensely read of any library in this section of the state. The book department, established only two years ago, had a circulation last year of 18,954, or an average of better than six readers for every volume in the stacks.

Many reading rooms have an annual circulation no greater than the total of books on their shelves.

In January of 1938, Mrs. Blanche Fritz, assistant director of the state department of public welfare, began to rehabilitate the libraries of Illinois mental institutions. Kankakee state among them.

The reading room is located in the original chapel of the state hospital here, with Mrs. Margaret Vining and Mrs. Helen Kahnt as librarians.

Rotary Club Elects 7 New Directors

Hear Two Speakers On Adult Education
Program Here

Seven Rotarians were elected members of the board of directors at the club's meeting Thursday noon in the Hotel Kankakee. They are Ray Bjorklund, Ralph Francis, George Hemminger, Ray Isaacs, Irving Munson, Guy Quick and Roy Wilcox.

This group will meet next week to choose the club president from among their number.

Two speakers addressed Rotarians yesterday. They were Miss Beatrice Bedard, supervisor of adult education in Kankakee county, a WPA project, and Mrs. Christine Mulrooney, supervisor of household aid work.

History of Education

Tracing the history of education of adult persons, Miss Bedard related the meetings of ancient Greece, craft guilds of the middle ages, early bible study clubs of England and American colonial days, chautauqua and lyceum movements down to the present program sponsored by the federal government.

More than 4,000,000 persons in the United States were illiterate, according to the last federal census; in Kankakee county 1.6 per cent, or 673 persons, were so classified.

In a recent county survey Miss Bedard said her organization found 528 illiterates, with about one-fourth of this number colored. A study of

Modified Admission
Requirements At Univ.

Champaign-Urbana, Ill., April 26.—(UP)—The University of Illinois board of trustees today had approved modified admission requirements to the university including one allowing high school students in the upper half of their classes to enter without adhering to the old provisions pertaining to majors and minors.

Under the new plan, these students are allowed to present nine units from English, foreign language, mathematics, science and social studies in applying for entrance to the institution.

High school credits needed for admission were changed to permit entrance with two majors and one minor, and to permit six units instead of five to be selected from any required high school subjects which meet the standards for university accreditation.

A small but adequate medical library for the use of doctors and nurses and four sets of encyclopedias are available.

Inside a glass enclosed case about six feet square stands a model of the Kankakee state hospital, built by Clifford Compton to a scale of one-inch to 50 feet. Pictures adorn the walls and the room has superior lighting, containing 15 windows.

Kankakee High Senior Play Real Comedy

Members Of Cast, Directed By Frank Weller,
Perform Admirably

Uncle Cy Sapp of Punkin Center, Ariz., came to New York City to see the sights and have a high old time. Robert Mehrer, ably cast in the role of Uncle Cy, hit a new high when he found himself on an ocean liner bound for England and impersonating a millionaire, in the senior class play of Kankakee high school, a refreshing comedy presented last evening in the school auditorium.

All this was hastily arranged by his jittery but quick-thinking nephew, Paul Sapp, played by Francis Somers, secretary to the tycoon, in an attempt to save the fortune of his boss. Uncle Cy, no financial wizard but possessed of a lot of common sense, started things whooping with his well-timed quips. The whoops became howls, however, when he met up with Aunt Winona.

The outstanding characterization of the play, Aunt Winona, impersonated by Louise Simpson, came aboard to "save" her niece from marrying the millionaire and got action every time she walked into a scene. A veritable female bloodhound, the man-hating aunt boiled every time she thought about marriage and fought with Uncle Cy whenever they met.

What a Woman!

Miss Simpson put plenty of "oomph" into her role, wielding her umbrella like a weapon and fuming at every man who got in her way. Even when she fell overboard, she came up telling her rescuers how they should have performed the job.

While the aunt was trying to prevent one marriage, her other niece Jean, characterized by Frances Hattenberg, rapidly fell in love with the millionairess' secretary. She tried to remain loyal to her aunt but Cupid won. Finally, even Uncle Cy and Aunt Winona called a truce and anked altar-wed.

Others in Cast

Spice and mystery were added by the presence of Spring Heather, played by Marlene Changnon and her maid, portrayed by Frances Kruse. The comedy of the plot was heightened by Marjorie Smith, stylist with the weak stomach who gave realistic interpretations of periodic seasickness; by Marjorie Yocum who let no one forget the hymn who let no one forget the hymn in her name of "Van-Stratford"; by James Hilliker as the droll Englishman.

The cast was well coached by Frank Weller. All portrayed their parts well. Others included Frank Douglas, steward; Elsa Haller, prim office worker; Dale Learned, hay fever sufferer; and Harriet Hixson, powerful osteopath.

Between acts Joseph Knecht presented a tumbling act and William Jack, a piano solo.

War Correspondent
To Talk At Church

The Rev. George Dewey Blomgren, foreign news correspondent and evangelist, will speak at the Central Christian church Sunday and Monday evenings. On Sunday will deliver a message in keeping with the local pastor's series of sermons on bible prophecy.

His subject Monday evening will be "The War Drama of Europe." He will show motion pictures of the fall of Warsaw, taking of Danzig and flames over Finland. The Rev. John P. Norman will speak Sunday morning on the theme previously announced for the sabbath evening service, "Signs of the Times in the Churches."

Elmer Anderson, president of the Student council at Kankakee high school, announced today that seven students and one sponsor are representing the school at the seventh annual convention of the Illinois Association of Student Councils today and tomorrow at Carbondale.

The theme of the conference is "Education in the Development of Personality," which will be explained by adult educators and selected students.

Kankakee has a special interest in the Illinois association for the second of the annual convention, in 1935, was held here. Miss Othella Graves, then president of the Kankakee group, was the secretary.

Gene LaRoque of Kankakee was the state's third president of the fifth. The purpose of the association, says Miss Shuman, "is to foster and promote student participation in school affairs. Several other high schools in this county are also sending delegations to the convention."

Miss McCracken, a junior, will lead one of the 12 discussion groups at the meeting. In order to vitalize her topic, "Supervision of Social Affairs," letters were sent to 35 schools varying in size and scattered over the state, to determine problems and practices in schools other than Kankakee.

School Girl Slain
As She Prepares
Her Home-Work

Abington, Pa., April 26.—(AP)—A killer crept silently onto the porch of a home in this suburban community last night, peered through a window at a peaceful family scene, then shot 16-year-old Edith Snyder to death as she pored over high school studies.

The attractive, chestnut-haired girl arose with a scream as a bullet tore through the window and pierced her heart. She took a few steps, then fell dead in the arms of her 17-year-old brother, Edwin, who had been reclining on a divan across the room.

Her mysterious assailant ran to a curb, jumped into an automobile and sped away.

Although Miss Snyder's family could assign no possible motive, investigators worked today on the theory the slaying may have been the climax of an adolescent love affair. They said they found her handbag stuffed with 100 notes, such as pass between a boy and girl at school.

Exonerated In The Death Plunge Of Girl

Los Angeles, April 26.—(AP)—Through habeas corpus action, Brydon Stockdale has won exoneration in the death-plunge of Miss Pearl Wesel, 40, formerly of St. Louis, down a Hollywood hillside three weeks ago.

Stockdale and Lesley Williams, 33, were arrested on murder charges. Williams will go to trial later.

Superior Judge Frank Swain held that preliminary hearing testimony did not show Stockdale to be in any way responsible for the death of Miss Wesel, who met the men in a cocktail bar and accompanied them to a lookout point in the hills.

Physician Believes
Indiana Slaying Insane

Crawfordsville, Ind., April 26.—(AP)—Dr. Howard Kinnaman, Crawfordville physician, testified today that in his opinion Thomas Allen Boys, alleged sex-slayer of 11-year-old Elizabeth DeBruicker was insane.

Dr. Kinnaman was a defense witness at the first-degree murder trial of the 28-year-old Attica golf course groundskeeper, alleged to have attacked and strangled the pretty farm girl last July 21.

The doctor was one of two physicians who examined Boys last January when an insanity plea was entered.

Here's The Story Of The Little Pig That Stayed Home

See Cliff, N. Y., April 26.—(AP)—You've heard about the little pig that went to market?

Well, here's the story of the other one that stayed home.

Penelope is her name, and when she was given to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin G. Schneider two months ago, she was just a pink little bundle.

She made a cute pet for the Schneiders, children, George, 2, and John, 4.

The elder Schneiders, however, took a long-range view and considered Penelope in terms of bacon and pork chops.

Penelope grew and grew, and now she tips the beam at 175 pounds, but still is kept pinkish by daily scrubbing. Gone are the thoughts of pork chops, and Penelope still is a pet.

But here, the law steps in. See Cliff's ordinances ban the keeping of pigs within 500 feet of any building—even the pig-owner's dwelling.

Result?

Mrs. Schneider's add in this town's weekly today read:

"For sale—bungalow. Owner forced to sell because of pig."

They're going to buy a farm, for Penelope.

Hold 2 Youths For Theft Of Cash Box

Watseka, April 26.—(RN Special)—Two Watseka young men were apprehended by Sheriff Guy E. Redman this morning for questioning in connection with the theft of a cash box containing $1, some change and cash receipts from the White Diner on West Walnut street.

They are Claude Watkins, 28, and Ed Nally, 21, who entered the shop at 3:30 o'clock this morning and ordered sandwiches. While the restaurant man, Robert Ward, was in the kitchen, Watkins sneaked around picked up the cash box and carried it out to his car. The sheriff found it floating in a stream along the cemetery road east of town.

Nally at first admitted no knowledge of the theft but later admitted that he saw Watkins do it. In a hearing before Justice Frank Bush this morning, both were ordered held in $1,000 bond to the grand jury. Nally arranged his bond today but Watkins remained in custody.

Drunk Rams Fist
Through Wall

Bob Jackson, 20, of 637 North Harrison avenue was arrested at 12:32 o'clock this morning by Officers Kenneth Huling and Jay Cahon for drunkenness and disorderly conduct at Queen's cafe, 176 South East avenue.

Before Police Magistrate Edward Hoenicke this morning he admitted ramming his fist through a beaver-board partition in the washroom at the restaurant. Jackson, a WPA worker, lacked the money to pay a $12.50 fine and was ordered to work it out at the rate of $2 a day on city streets.

Fine 6 Motorists
Parking Too Long

Six motorists were fined $2 each in police court yesterday for parking longer than two hours in the business district.

They were Fred Swannell Jr., 1111 East Maple street; Ray Lottinville, 1065 South Elm avenue; Mrs. Amanda H. Sharr, 297 North Schuyler avenue; Clarence Romary, 604 South Greenwood avenue; Noel Diamond, 809 South Greenwood avenue; and C. R. Marcotte, Kankakee.

Won't Believe His Parents Are Dead

Chicago Attorney Saw
Them In Coffins But
Doubts They're Dead

William L. Partlow, 40, honor law school graduate, former Chicago practicing attorney, today was the subject of an insanity hearing in county court here.

Partlow entered Manteno state hospital last November as a voluntary patient. On Monday he filed a three-day notice for release from the institution. Yesterday, Dr. D. Louis Steinberg, assistant managing officer, filed a petition for the sanity hearing, saying he was so requested by the patient's relatives.

Hospital records show that Partlow finished his high school course in three years and graduated from the University of Illinois law school in 1926. As one of the four highest students in the class he was admitted to the exclusive Order of Coif, honorary scholastic legal fraternity.

Attorney for Banks

Afterward he was employed as an attorney by the Chicago Title & Trust company and by Central State Bank of Evanston as trust officer.

From the witness stand this morning he glibly defined polysyllabic Latin legal terms put to him by Attorney Francis J. Householder, appointed to represent him.

During questioning by Assistant State Attorney Victor Lauriden, however, he expressed doubt that his father and mother are dead, although he attended their funerals and saw them in their coffins.

Doctor Testifies

Dr. Steinberg testified that his mental condition has been classified at the institution as dementia precox, paranoid type.

The hearing was being held before Judge C. D. Henry and a jury composed of Dr. E. A. Rush, Charles Hensel, At D. Joseph, Una Bunker and Helen Wheeler.

MINOR ACCIDENT

The auto of Earl Smith of 610 Spruce street was involved in a minor collision last evening with the parked machine of Ray Isaacs, 180 North Indiana avenue in the 100 block on South Fifth avenue.

3rd Grade Girls Build Completely
Equipped Doll House

(Picture on Page 10)

By ELEANOR PAPINEAU

St. Joseph High School Reporter

Third grade pupils at St. Joseph seminary "play house" with a purpose. In their spare time and during their art lessons, the pupils have constructed a doll house under supervision of their teacher, Sister St. Joseph of the Faith.

The house, which is about three feet long and two feet wide, is outfitted completely with furnishings fashioned by the students, who in this manner learn the rudiments of color harmonizing and furniture arrangement.

Built of orange crates, newspapers, wall paper, and plain colored paper, the house has two floors and an attic. Each of the 25 girls in the class contributed to its construction in some way.

It has all the furniture of a modern home even to the fire place, book rack, and pictures on the walls. Pupils and the rooms for which they designed furniture are Jorella Taylor and Delores Scheppeler, parlor; Bernadette Gladu, dining room; Iveland Noel and Jacqueline Hostian, kitchen; Jolene Boudreau and Josephine, bathroom; and Janet Dupuis and Delores Scheppeler, blue bedroom.

Attic furniture was erected by Joanne Dupuis and Joleen Boudreau. Frames and carpets were by other members of the class.

The outside of the house is of crumpled newspapers and water. For the roof, green paper is cut in the shape of shingles. All sorts of furniture is designed from colored paper; curtains from Kleenex; lamps from pencil stubs and empty spoons.

Reinforcements Pouring Into Battle Areas

Allied Troops Compelled
To Make "Limited Withdrawals" In Norway

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Allied forces in see-saw fighting in the heart of Norway were reported today to have forced back one German spearhead with "considerable losses" to their foe while falling back in another sector.

The allied success, reported in dispatches reaching Stockholm, occurred in Osterdalen, or eastern valley, where Germans yesterday pushed into Roros and then fell back to dig in approximately 85 miles short of Trondheim.

Swedish advisers said advance units pushing anew to Roros were flung back five miles by allied troops. Artillery and warplanes were used by both sides.

Allied Withdrawals

The allied withdrawal occurred in the parallel valley to the west, Gudbrandsdalen, where action was centered south of Dombas, with the Germans endeavoring to sweep north to join forces holding the Trondheim region.

The new setback came after the British had conceded they already had lost "the first trick" in the struggle developing along the fjord-streached coast and through the center of the mountainous northlands.

The war office said "limited withdrawals" had been forced by strong German forces, mechanized, and aided by low-flying warplanes, south of Dombas.

Dombas, railway junction point south of Trondheim, lies 50 miles north of "Ringebu" reached yesterday. The British had been driven up into the interior by the Germans in their effort to outflank their hold on Trondheim.

Vigorous Air Offensive

Rival air fleets roared over wide areas in another phase of the conflict. The British said their aircraft now had established bases in Norway and begun "vigorous offensive action."

The German high command reported its warplanes yesterday had damaged small British warships and transports, destroyed harbor facilities, bombed airports and destroyed 11 allied airplanes in Norway. It said Oslo was attacked by the British during the night with "no military damage" while on

Munitions Sales To Norway Go On Cash And Carry

Operations Of Neutrality Act Extended To That Embattled Country

Washington, April 25.—(AP)—American munitions sales to Norway went on a "cash and carry" basis today as presidential proclamations extended operations of the neutrality act to that embattled country.

The action also had the effect of cancelling the $10,000,000 credit granted recently to Norway by the export-import bank.

President Roosevelt invoked the neutrality act in a series of proclamations issued yesterday at Warm Springs, Ga. "The documents did not mention the status of Denmark, which the Germans occupied simultaneously, with the start of the Norwegian invasion."

Exports Increase
As the conflict abroad brought this fresh adjustment of American foreign policy, the commerce department reported that the stimulus of war had sent American exports 31 per cent ahead of last year. During the first quarter of 1940, the report said, exports exceeded imports by $410,340,000 or almost half of the favorable trade balance of $559,000,000 recorded for all of 1939.

The most notable export gains were in airplanes, iron and steel products, other manufactured goods, numerous metals, lubricants, the metal-working machinery, motor trucks, tractors and chemicals.

The total value of exports for the first quarter was placed at $1,069,723,000 as against $809,000,000 last year. Imports advanced 23 per cent to $666,424,000. The 1939 total for the period was $508,788,000.

Beligient List
The latest neutrality proclamations added Norway to the belligerent list which already included the British empire, France, Germany and Poland.

One proclamation found a state of war to exist between Norway and Germany, a second declared American neutrality in that conflict, and a third barred Norwegian submarines from American ports and territorial waters.

Rah Rah Spirit In College Is On The Wane

Questionnaire Shows Youth Is Thoughtful And Hard Working

Kankakee, Ill., April 26.—The rah-rah days are over for Joe College is a creature of the past. This was the conclusion today of a questionnaire answered by 250 seniors graduating this June.

Of the men questioned, 80 per cent earned at least part of their school expenses. Thirty per cent of the women did likewise, and 15 per cent of the entire group worked through without any financial aid.

Sixty per cent of the men and 40 per cent of the women reported definite job prospects after graduation.

Matrimony Rates High
Nearly three-quarters of the men declared they expected to marry on salaries of $20 a week or less, although less than half the women said they'd marry men in this income bracket.

As a career, however, matrimony rated high for the women. Sixteen per cent said they'd wed upon graduation and nearly all of them reported they expected to be married within five years.

Another indication the rah-rah days are a thing of the past came when the collegeans replied to a query on allowances from home. The men received a median of $10 a month above board, and the women, while the women received a median of $20. Nearly one-fifth received no money whatever for incidentals.

Deer Exiled To Dude Ranch For Eating Flowers

Bozeman, Mont., April 25—(INS)—Suey Q. three-legged deer, long a privileged character in Bozeman, has been banished from the city for eating flowers.

The animal's two-year stay in the city was ended recently when she was rounded up, placed in city jail, and finally transported to a dude ranch in Gallatin canon—halfway to Yellowstone park—to spend the rest of her life.

The pet deer was found in 1938 suffering from a broken leg. She was taken in and had her leg set in a cast by a doctor.

Since then she has been a familiar figure on Bozeman streets until she decided to augment her regular diet of candy, cake and hay—gifts from city children—with tender young shoots sprouting in city lawns, and was sent into exile.

tract.
